

I am a strong supporter of satellite radio and am a current subscriber to XM. Satellite Radio provides programming of a very high quality and diversity that is unthinkable on AM or FM radio.

I respectfully urge the FCC to reject the petition from the NAB 04-160 and to support the ability of alternative broadcasters such as XM Satellite Radio and Sirius Satellite Radio to provide the kind of programming that best serves the interest of its listeners.

Steve Mestayer
New Iberia LA